HIGHFIELD LEARNER VALUES CERTIFICATES WEEKS 1 and 2

Welcome to our new students Te-kohurangi, Huntly & Ezra in Rm13. The first full week at school so we are focussing on routines, expectations and class culture. Manaakitanga is being explored for a range of aspects including links to our Highfield Learner Values. Children sometimes get a bit unsettled at this time with the reality of expectations, sleep patterns, hot days and hot nights. We do work through this as they settle into the routines. Thank goodness for our pool, our water only policy and our lovely shade areas. Great to see hats being worn and drink bottles brought to school. Naming of clothes including swim gear and hats is greatly appreciated.

Each Monday we have a whole school hui which is led by our senior students. This is an opportunity to set the scene for the week and share any events or activities or reminders. At this hui we also practice our school song and school haka so we are polished and prepared for times these are needed.

Congratulations also to our house leaders who were selected following their presentation outlining why they should be a leader. We encourage a bit of competition through our houses with house points earned from gottcha slips, house lunches, fun day this Friday afternoon and other events. This is also an opportunity to mix across the school and children getting to know each other.

Another big responsibility some students are picking up is to be part of the student- lead PB4L (Positive Behaviour for Learning) team. These students will help analyse the behaviour data, select a focus for the next 2 weeks, develop lesson plans, videos, posters for classroom use and go into classrooms coaching other students on the focus. This team is supported by Lizzie Kirkby.

Both these initiatives are designed to build leadership and responsibility in our students. Such things only happen with teachers going the extra mile and spending their lunch times and after school times to make them happen.

We are looking forward to our goal setting interviews this week, meeting with whanau and getting to know your aspirations for your children.

We have moved the container from the car park over the fence and have plans for its use. Unfortunately it appears to be an open invitation for some children to climb on it. This is obviously a safety issue. All children will be informed that if they climb on the container they will be subject to a 1 day formal stand-down with parents informed and they will lose playtimes. This applies to all climbing – eg roofs, tops of walls etc. Thanks for re-enforcing this at home.

Fun Friday this Friday afternoon – house colours/ mufti, sun hats, drink bottles, lots of fun. Come and join us if you are available.
