HIGHFIELD SCHOOL

5 June 2019

Leading to the future

Rotary Dictionaries for our Year 4's – Thanks Rotary!

Rm 6 Art Myths & Legends

Welcome to new students at Highfield School we hope you and your whanau feel welcome into our school family.

It was a pleasure to have Stuart Wilcox our new principal visiting on Tuesday. He was introduced at school hui and spent the day visiting classrooms and becoming familiar with this place. Another informal visit is planned later this term. Stuart starts at the beginning of Term 3.

Congratulations to the students who have qualified for the South Canterbury Cross Country finals. Thanks also to parent volunteers for supporting them at Waihi.

Team Rimu start Swim Safe at CBay next week. The children from Rata are enjoying their lessons and there are stories of success and growing confidence in the water.

The Life Education Van arrives this week.

Nic Hill, teacher in Room 12, has won a position as a Cross School Facilitator for Kahui Ako. This means sharing her class for 2 days each week. We are pleased that Christine McGeever has accepted that position and will teach Room 12 students on Mondays and Tuesdays. Kylie Haynes has been appointed to replace Nic Hill as the Kura Collaborator for our school.

We have teams entered in the Jump Jam competition on June 27th coached by parent helpers and teachers, and our Kapa Haka group is in serious practice mode with support from Siobhan and Kerryn in preparation for Flava festival.

Several of our teacher have registered for the Government sponsored Te Reo course. This is in their own time and is a further commitment to deepen this aspect of our school curriculum.

We reinforce our Highfield Learner Values in many contexts every day. At times students will let themselves and us down by not being the best they can be and not living out those values. This happened before the school assembly last Friday when inappropriate words were displayed on the notice board for all to see. Their apology is recorded below.

Winter is here so a reminder about appropriate school uniform please. Lost property is in the office and the pile is getting larger by the day.

Remember Matariki celebration Wednesday July 3rd.

Dear Mrs Leitch
 Sorry for writing or placing letters into an inappropriate word. I'm sorry and I'm very ashamed of myself.
 Sorry parents for writing or placing letters into a word and letting your children see.

Dear Mrs Leitch
 Sorry for disrespecting the school hall. I am a Year 8 and I should have known better. Sorry for making the school look bad.
